Dear Sir:-

Referring to your letter of 8th inst. regarding Mrs. Louise M. T. Jewett, and returning herewith application for passport beg to say, that Mrs. Jewett's husband was a native-born citizen of this country, but Mrs. Jewett herself was born in London, England and became a naturalized citizen of the United States as indicated in her affidavit, she now being alone, I presume the Naturalized Citizen blank would be the proper form to submit, but if, in view of the above explanation, such is not the case, I will thank you to kindly return same to me and I will arrange for affidavit on "Native Citizen" blank. The document for Miss Stevenson was received by her direct, although I had been expecting to receive it at this office and was holding papers accordingly.

Awaiting your further pleasure in the matter.

Very truly yours,

A. J. Thomas
